

SOUTH WEST COMMUNITY WOODLAND TRUST

AT TALIESIN, GELSTON, NEAR CASTLE DOUGLAS www.swcwt.org

Easter Festival of Crafts and Fun.

Friday 22nd, Saturday 23rd and Sunday 24th April

Wood Carving with Richard Jones,

early instrument maker - particularly letter carving, learn how to use, sharpen and maintain your tools, learn how to choose your wood, create a piece of art, make a spoon, or carve your house name. We will be making an carved name board for the entrance to Taliesin so everyone can be part of this collaborative piece

3 day course for adults £120 (daily rates possible but the three day course is recommended)

Basket Making with Trevor Leat, local basket maker and creator of the annual Wickerman sculpture - A popular course suitable for all levels of expertise, design and make a sculptural piece or make and take home your own Easter basket!

3 day course £120 (daily rates possible but the three day course is recommended)

Other activities on offer for children and adults

Saturday - Wood block printing, leaf and vegetable printing, forest walks and coppice maintenance

Sunday - Wood block printing, leaf and vegetable printing. Painting eggs and Easter egg hunt!

Wild Food Foray and Japanese Knotweed Fest, other activities may be added, check website for details

£10 Adult, £5 Child per day which includes lunch, refreshments, materials and tuition. (Concessions available please ask)

Free camping but please bring food to share for the evening meal

Ring Jools Cox 01556 503649 for further info.

To book send cheque with 10% of total, made out to 'South West Community Woodlands Trust' to Charles Bett, Drumwhirn, Corsock, Castle Douglas DG7 3DX. Please give full contact details.